

Saturday Lunchtime Free Recitals

We resume our popular free Saturday lunchtime recitals on February 9th at the usual time of 1.00 pm

This first recital of the season brings the eagerly awaited return of the wonderfully talented vocal soprano Jinny Yoon. She will be joined by some of her equally talented friends, including 'cellist Bora Kim from the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire.

On February 16th our own rising star Megan Bennett will be the soloist. She has just taken up a choral scholarship at Royal Holloway College. Previously Head Chorister at Coventry Cathedral, she was also a member of the renowned CBSO Youth Orchestra.

February 23rd would have been Handel's 334th birthday and the anniversary of the deaths of Edward Elgar in 1934 and Herbert Howells in 1983. Tim Campain commemorates all three in his Organ Recital on that date.

March's recitals see the return by popular request of flautist Lindsay Martin (March 2nd) and 'All that Brass' (March 16th). Making its debut at Holy Trinity on March 9th will be the choral group 'Gaudeamus' from Warwick University directed by Rosalind Light.

Victoria Farrell-Reed (April 6th) studied at Chetham's Music School and the Guildhall School of Music and is at the beginning of a promising career as a solo violinist. Easter Saturday (April 20th) is once again the occasion of Holy Trinity's Director of Music, Alex Norman's recital. And the Spring Series concludes on April 27th with what is certain to be a spectacular recital from Coventry's own Matthew Sandy, formerly student of Princethorpe College, Blue Coat School and Music College, member of Holy Trinity Choir and a choral scholar at King's College, Cambridge.

Admission is always free. Any donations are for our Pipe Organ Appeal, raising funds to install the iconic Harrison & Harrison organ rescued from St Thomas Bedford, Leigh, in Lancashire.
